

RETAIL & CONVENIENCE

Our products at their finest

We complement our yet always wide range of products by offering our customers in the retail and convenience sector all kinds of product solutions tailored to their own requirements.

No matter whether you are interested in plain fillets, fish steaks, products with toppings or fillings, marinated products, convenience or semi-convenience products or any other products of our portfolio:

Together with you we develop an ideal concept including individual and workable packaging solutions meeting your preferences and needs.
